12 Turnbridge St, Nelly Bay

Excellent value home with studio and pool

This spacious four bedroom, two bathroom home plus two room studio would suit people looking for extra space for visitors, craft/art or a workshop.

With a large 911m2 fenced garden, the home is L-shaped with decking connecting the studio to the house, plus an additional entertaining deck overlooking the pool in the back garden. There's plenty of room for pets, chooks, growing veggies - whatever you enjoy doing.

The front yard is a blank canvas with room for gardens or keep it open as there's very little traffic in Turnbridge St. The double-length carport runs down the side of the house and makes a good covered external space if you need it as there's room for car-parking on the driveway and street as well.

The open-plan living area is huge, with slate floors and a sunken lounge area opening onto a covered deck and looking out onto the pool. The first room to the left of the front door is set up as an office and the master bedroom is adjacent which features ensuite bathroom with corner bath, separate shower, large double vanity and private WC.
