Renovator's Delight

This cute old cottage is set well back on the 1012m² block with room for a new dwelling to the front (subject to council approval), still with plenty of room for a shed, garden and more. The pool is already in although it hasn't been used in a while so could do with a little, ok a lot, of work!

A recently added building contains the laundry, store room and bathroom whilst the cottage itself has the bedroom and living room in the centre with an enclosed patio sleepout to the rear and kitchen-diner to the front.

The back yard directly behind the house is taken up by the large inground pool with the other half fully fenced with access should you wish to put in a larger shed than the current garden shed.

Renovate the cottage and pool and you could have a great little holiday home, close to the beach and golf club in Picnic Bay, or build yourself a new home in a great location where land is scarce.

Contact Alex to arrange a private inspection by appointment only.
