

16 Mango Pkwy, Nelly Bay

Feels like home

This delightful property would make the ideal home for a small family or retired couple looking for a comfortable easy place to live in a peaceful yet central location.

Close to the school and shops, the 1017m2 fenced yard is just the right size, with room for parking caravans, boats etc, adding a shed or a pool, or simply a beautiful garden. With views across to the mature trees of Gustav Creek across the road, this is a very peaceful locale.

Architect-designed and built in 2002 by respected local builder Benny Kalsgaard, the home is built for tropical living with two spacious decks, one to the front of the house and one to the rear which has been fully screened allowing you to enjoy the outdoors whatever the weather and keep all your internal doors wide open. It's the perfect entertainer's home with the large open-plan living area flowing onto both decks and incorporating the kitchen which opens up with a servery onto the deck-room.

The kitchen has plenty of bench and storage space including a large corner pantry, with a gas cooktop and double sink. The home is fully air-conditioned with beautiful polished wood floors to living areas and bedrooms and tiled
